The exhibition displays, from April 1st to 20, 15 photographs from two humanitarian missions to Ethiopia, in November 2006 and February 2007 - all at the CinéRobothèque located at the National Film Board of Canada.

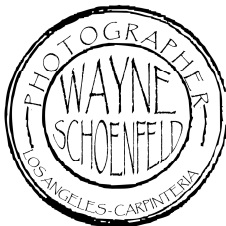

The first public viewing of the documentary film, co produced by Wayne Schoenfeld and Exeko and edited by AuerFilms, will follow the exhibition opening on Friday, April 11, 5:30 pm at NFB.

Through This World But Once, the exhibition and the documentary film, is an empowering story, a story of hope and sharing painted against the portrait of a troubled nation on the brink; a rare opportunity to view these inspirational documentary images and film portraying the Ethiopian people in all their richness, as well as the dedication of volunteer medical teams and a clown working together to heal the body and soul of children regaining their smile.
